No. 12-485V

Special Master Christian J. Moran

Filed: May1, 2015

Damages; decision based on proffer;
human papillomavirus (“HPV”);
vasovagal syncope; skull fracture;
post-concussion syndrome.

Alfonso Melendez, Alfonso L. Melendez, P.C., El Paso, TX, for Petitioner;
Claudia Gangi, U.S. Dep’t of Justice, Washington, DC, for Respondent.

UNPUBLISHED DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On August 2, 2012, Raul Gutierrez and Martha Gil filed a petition on behalf of their minor daughter, Michelle Gutierrez², seeking compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa –10 through 34 (2012), alleging that the human papillomavirus (“HPV”) vaccination caused Michelle Gutierrez to suffer vasovagal syncope, a skull fracture, and post-concussion syndrome secondary to the vaccination.

On April 29, 2015, respondent filed a Proffer on Award of Compensation, to which petitioner agrees. Based upon the record as a whole, the special master finds the proffer reasonable and that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer. Pursuant to the attached Proffer, the court awards petitioner:

¹ The E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the parties have 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

² This case was recaptioned on April 17, 2015, due to Michelle Gutierrez no longer being a minor having turn 18 years old on March 11, 2015.

- A. A lump sum payment of $60,000.00, representing compensation for actual and projected pain and suffering, in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Michelle Gutierrez.
- B. A lump sum payment of $10,998.60, representing compensation for satisfaction of the Superior HealthPlan lien, payable jointly to petitioner and:

Superior HealthPlan
5615 High Point Drive, Suite 100
Attn: Case Management Department
Irving, TX 75038

Petitioner agrees to endorse this payment to the Superior HealthPlan.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 12-485V according to this decision and the attached proffer.³

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Mary Holmes, at (202) 357-6360.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

pain and suffering has been reduced to net present value. See § 300aa-15(a)(4). Petitioner agrees.

D. Past Unreimbursable Expenses

Respondent proffers that based upon the evidence of record, petitioner did not incur any past unreimbursable expenses related to her vaccine-related injury. Petitioner agrees.

E. Medicaid Lien

Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded funds to satisfy the Superior HealthPlan lien in the amount of $10,998.60, which represents full satisfaction of any right of subrogation, assignment, claim, lien, or cause of action the Superior HealthPlan may have against any individual as a result of any Medicaid payments the Superior HealthPlan has made to or on behalf of Michelle Gutierrez from the date of her eligibility for benefits through the date of judgment in this case as a result of her vaccine-related injury suffered on or about August 6, 2009, under Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

F. Attorney's Fees and Costs

This proffer does not address final attorneys' fees and costs. Petitioner is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, to be determined at a later date upon petitioner filing substantiating documentation.

II. Form of the Award

A. The parties recommend that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and request that the Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following : a lump sum payment of $60,000.00

(representing compensation for actual and projected pain and suffering), in the form of a check payable to petitioner.¹
